

HISTORY OF ECONOMIC THOUGHT AND POLICY NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

SUBMISSION

1. Submissions to the journal should be original unpublished work and should not be under review with any other journal. Papers should be submitted electronically at: hetp@uniroma3.it.
2. Manuscripts shall be submitted in English. It is the author's responsibility to ensure the quality of the English text.
3. Submission of a manuscript will be taken to imply that it presents original unpublished work not under consideration for publication elsewhere.
4. Manuscripts should usually be in the range of 50.000-60.000 characters in length (spaces included), but different lengths may exceptionally be taken into consideration.
5. All manuscripts should have an abstract of less than 1000 characters (spaces included). Authors are required to provide 5 keywords and JEL classification (see www.econlit.org for further information).
6. Authors' affiliation and contacts should be included in a first footnote with the symbol "*" at the end of the Author's name. Acknowledgments are to be placed in the same footnote.
7. Books for review and further material should be sent to the following address: Piero Bini, Viale 4 novembre, 117 - 50053 Empoli (Florence-Italy).

COPYRIGHT

1. It is a condition of publication that authors assign copyright or license the publication rights in their article, including abstract, to the board of History of Economic Thought and Policy. The authors agree that the exclusive rights to reproduce and distribute the article have been given to the board of History of Economic Thought and Policy, including reprints, photographic reproductions, microfilms, or any other reproductions of a similar nature and translations. Authors may use the article after publication only with written permission from the board of History of Economic Thought and Policy and Franco Angeli.
2. Authors will receive a copyright transfer form which must be signed and returned before publication.
3. Permission to reproduce copyright material must be obtained by the author before submission and any acknowledgements should be included in the typescript or captions as appropriate. Permissions should be attached to the copyright transfer form.

STYLE GUIDELINES

1. The layout of manuscripts, including title, section (sub-) headings, footnotes, and quotations should conform to the style evidenced in the issues of this journal. Double quotation marks should be used for any quoted material that appears within the body of the text. Single quotation marks should be used for quotes within quotes.
2. Citations in the text must be in round parentheses and as follows: (Skidelsky 1983: 167-8).
3. All notes should be footnotes.
4. Italic font, rather than underlines, should be used for titles, emphases, etc.
5. The first time that a person's name is used in the text, his or her first name and middle initial should also be given.
6. Symbolic letters are italicized, whether in an equation or in the text. Numbers in equations and in symbolic terms in the text are not italicized, even if they are subscripts or superscripts.
7. Diagrams, graphs and tables should also be sent as a separate Word or Excel file.
8. References should appear immediately after the manuscript and follow this style:

References

- Volumes: Skidelsky R. (1992). John Maynard Keynes. The Economist as Saviour 1920-1937, London, Macmillan.
  - Collection of essays: Pasinetti L. and B. Schefold (eds.)(1999). The Impact of Keynes on Economics in the 20th Century, Cheltenham, Edward Elgar.
  - Essay: Colander D. (2009). What was “It” that Robbins was Defining?, Journal of the History of Economic Thought, 31(4): 437-448. DOI: 10.1017/S1053837209990241.
- Authors should indicate the Doi of all the articles in journals included in the references. Doi can be obtained at the following address <https://search.crossref.org/references>. Otherwise, they may also be found on Google.
- Essay in a collection: Mundell R.A. (1969). Uncommon Arguments for Common Currencies. In Johnson H.G. and A.K. Swoboda (eds.)(1973): 114-32.